Migrant workers

4647. SHRI TARINIKANTAROY: Will the Minister of OVERSEAS INDIAN AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(3) the number of migrant workers who sent abroad during the last ten years, year-wise, the basic service conditions of these migrant labours: and the guidelines of Government to regulate the service conditions of migrant labours?

THE MINISTER OF OVERSEAS INDIAN AFFAIRS (SHRI VAYALAR RAVI): (a) The number of emigrant workers granted emigration clearance †Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

by the POEs during the last ten years year-wise is given in the Statement. (See below)

(b) and (c) The conditions of the emigrant workers are governed by the employment contract entered into with the Foreign Employer in accordance with the provisions of the Emigration Act. These generally include free food, accommodation, transportation to the work place, medical facility, transportation of dead body etc. Such workers also have the benefit of the protection of local labour laws. In case any violation of service conditions is reported by the emigrant worker to the Indian Mission or to the Government of India, the same is taken up immediately with the Foreign Employer through the Indian Mission for redressal of the grievances. If necessary, the assistance of the local labour welfare authorities is also sought by the Indian Mission.
